

CAI 2026, May 8-10 GRANADA, Spain

The 2026 IEEE Conference on Artificial Intelligence (IEEE CAI 2026)

The 2026 IEEE Conference on Artificial Intelligence (IEEE CAI 2026) is the 4th Edition of the International Conference IEEE CAI that will take place in Granada (Spain). IEEE CAI 2026 is focused on the AI research and innovation with a special emphasis on the applications of AI and key AI verticals that impact industrial technology applications and innovations. You will learn about new research and breakthroughs in the industry, gain insight into new start-ups and leading AI companies, grow your network, and get inspired by the brightest minds working in the multi-faceted fields. IEEE CAI was previously celebrated in Santa Clara (CAI 2023, 2025) and Singapore (CAI 2024) and it is supported by the important Technology IEEE Societies: IEEE Computational Intelligence Society, IEEE Computer Society, IEEE System, Man and Cybernetics Society and IEEE Signal Processing Society. Plan now to attend this highly anticipated spectacular event, taking place May 8-10, 2026 in Granada (Spain).
