Shyi-Ming Chen received the Ph.D. degree in Electrical Engineering from National Taiwan University, Taipei, Taiwan, in June 1991. He is currently a Distinguished Professor in the Department of Computer Science and Information Engineering, National Taiwan University of Science and Technology, Taipei, Taiwan. He has published more than 440 papers in referred journals, conference proceedings and book chapters. His research interests include fuzzy systems, knowledge-based systems, artificial intelligence, neural networks, data mining, information retrieval, and genetic algorithms.

Professor Chen is an IEEE Fellow, an IET Fellow, and an IFSA Fellow. He has received numerous honors and awards, including the 1997 Outstanding Youth Electrical Engineer Award granted by the Chinese Institute of Electrical Engineering (CIEE), Republic of China, the 2001 Distinguished Talented Person Award, Republic of China, for Distinguished Contributions in Information Technologies, the 2002 Distinguished Electrical Engineering Professor Award granted by the Chinese Institute of Electrical Engineering (CIEE), Republic of China, the 2007-2010 Distinguished Research Award of the National Taiwan University of Science and Technology, the 2008 Distinguished Engineering Professor Award granted by the Chinese Institute of Engineers (CIE), Republic of China, the 2012-2015 Distinguished Research Award of the National Taiwan University of Science and Technology, and the 2013 Distinguished Contributions Award of the Taiwanese Association for Consumer Electronics (TACE).

Professor Chen is currently the President of the Taiwanese Association for Consumer Electronics (TACE), a Chair of the IEEE SMC's Technical Committee on Intelligent Internet Systems, the Counselor of the IEEE Student Branch at the National Taiwan University of Science and Technology (NTUST), and the Advisor of the IEEE SMC Student Branch Chapter at the National Taiwan University of Science and Technology. He was the President of the Taiwanese Association for Artificial Intelligence (TAAI) from January 2005 to January 2009, an officer of the IEEE Taipei Section from January 2007 to December 2008, the Vice Chair of the IEEE Computational Intelligence Society, Taipei Chapter, from January 2008 to December 2009, and a member of the Board of Governors of the IEEE Systems, Man, and Cybernetics Society from January 2008 to December 2010. He was a member of the Board of Directors of the Chinese Fuzzy Systems Association (CFSA) from January 1998 to December 2004 and a member of the Board of Governors of the Taiwan Fuzzy Systems Association (TFSA) from January 2008 to December 2010.

Professor Chen is currently an Associate Editor of the IEEE Transactions on Fuzzy Systems, an Associate Editor of the IEEE Transactions on Cybernetics, an Associate Editor of Information Sciences, an Editorial Board Member of Information Fusion, an Associate Editor of Applied Intelligence, an Associate Editor of the Journal of Intelligent & Fuzzy Systems, an Associate Editor of the International Journal of Artificial Intelligence Tools, an Associate Editor of the International Journal of Pattern Recognition and Artificial Intelligence, an Editor of the New Mathematics and Natural Computation Journal, an Associate Editor of the International Journal of Fuzzy Systems, and an Associate Editor of the International Journal of Innovative Computing, Information and Control. He was an Associate Editor of the IEEE Transactions on Systems, Man, and Cybernetics: Systems, an Associate Editor of the IEEE Transactions on Systems, Man, and Cybernetics-Part A: Systems and Humans, an Associate Editor of the IEEE Transactions on Systems, Man, and Cybernetics-Part C: Applications and Reviews, an Associate Editor of the IEEE Computational Intelligence Magazine, and an Editorial Board Member of Soft Computing. He is listed in International Who's Who of Professionals, Marquis Who's Who in the World, and Marquis Who's Who in Science and Engineering.
