Jing Bi received her Ph.D. degree in Computer Science from Northeastern University, Shenyang, China, in 2011. She is currently an Associate Professor with the Faculty of Information Technology, School of Software Engineering, Beijing University of Technology, Beijing, China. She was a Post-doc researcher in the Department of Automation, Tsinghua University, Beijing, China. She was a research scientist at the Beijing Research Institute of Electronic Engineering Technology, Beijing, China. She was a research assistant and participated in research on cloud computing at the IBM Research, Beijing, China. She was a Visiting Research Scholar with the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering, New Jersey Institute of Technology, Newark, NJ, USA. Her research interests include distributed computing, cloud computing, large-scale data analytics, machine learning and performance optimization. She has over 100 publications in international journals and conference proceedings, including IEEE TCYB, TASE, TNNLS, TCC, TSC, TII, IoT Journal. Dr. Bi was the recipient of the IBM Fellowship Award, the recipient of the Best Poster Prize in the 3rd IFAC Workshop on Cyber-Physical & Human Systems (CPHS 2020), the recipient of the Best Paper Award in the 17th IEEE International Conference on Networking, Sensing and Control (ICNSC), the recipient of the Best Paper Award-Finalist in the 16th and 18th ICNSC, and the First-Prize Progress Award of Chinese Institute of Simulation Science and Technology. She was an Associate Editor of IEEE ACCESS. She is a senior member of the IEEE. Shi is also the liaisons of IEEE Women in Engineering (WIE) Committee and TAB Committee on Diversity and Inclusion (TAB CDI) from Systems, Man, and Cybernetics Society (SMCS), respectively.
